Purpose of the Role:

The role will strategically lead the management of the Leisure, Rural Estate, Parks & Culture functions across Enfield; working with commissioned and non-commissioned partners from across the Borough to deliver innovative, efficient and effective services to the residents and businesses of Enfield. You will strategically lead on delivering an effective and efficient customer journey experience, where continuous improvement is at the heart of what we do.

They will deputise for the Executive Director as required as well as actively supporting the delivery of core strategic cross-Directorate projects.

In full consultation with Members and the Chief Executive and as a full member of the Council's Corporate Management Board the Director will:

1. Create and communicate clarity of direction and purpose for staff at all levels in the context of the strategic aims and ambitions of the Council. Lead, direct and inspire people within own Directorate and Council wide to deliver great results. Ensure processes are in place for identifying and developing talent at all levels.
2. Promote diversity and inclusion across the Council.
3. Working closely with the Leader and Cabinet contribute to the development and achievement of strategic goals for the whole Council which fulfil statutory needs and are also focused on the wider needs and aspirations of residents.
4. Share in the development and review of corporate strategies and the planning, budgeting and allocation of Council wide resources. Ensures risks are identified, managed and escalated (where appropriate) and that mitigation strategies are in place.
5. Determine corporate budget and resource allocation and priorities to ensure value for money.
6. Ensure the effective strategic planning, commissioning and delivery of services across the Directorate. Ensure clear service standards are developed in compliance with relevant legislation within the remit of the role and they are communicated and monitored internally and with relevant partners/suppliers. Identify, challenge and act on areas of under-performance. Encourage and build on good performance.

7. Drive the development of evidence-based service improvement to ensure benefit for the people of Enfield. Build a culture to support innovation and creativity. Ensure timely and well-planned service improvement Programme management.
8. Builds and maintains effective relationships with elected members, partners and other key stakeholders. Acting as a proactive ambassador for the Council, develops and leads partnerships with other agencies and providers to achieve ambitious outcomes for Enfield. Represents the Council externally to make an impact for Enfield.
9. Lead and own the long-term strategy for Leisure, Rural Estate, Parks and Culture.

- Sports
- Leisure
- Ground Maintenance
- Culture & Events
- Parks & Open Spaces
- Cemeteries Service
- Schools Traded Services

- Schools Music Service
- Rural Estate Management

You will be a member of the Council's leadership team, and will:

- Advise Cabinet on the allocation of financial and other resources necessary to realise the Council's aspirations and other priorities and requirements.
- Make a significant contribution to the development of the Council's strategic aspirations and corporate and operational priorities, ensuring that these do not compromise the Council's capability to meet all statutory and other regulatory responsibilities.
- In consultation with relevant Cabinet Members be accountable for the effective use of allocated resources to ensure that the Council's agreed aspirations, corporate and operational priorities and statutory and regulatory responsibilities are met.
- Maintain a constructive dialogue with Members to advise on and understand the administration's aspirations for the borough. Provide vision, leadership, drive and direction to the Council's staff and partners in meeting those aspirations.
- Through own behaviours, be a role model for the leadership behavioural competencies, promoting and supporting the embedding of the Council's standards and values and behavioural competencies throughout the organisation culture of the Council.
- Work with colleagues to establish and embed an organisation culture that supports and promotes the optimum use of resources and corporate infrastructure to ensure the delivery of value for money outcomes that meet the strategic and operational priorities and objectives.
- Be an ambassador for Enfield promoting the overall interests of the borough with the aim of establishing and nurturing partnerships, generating inward investment that would benefit the borough and the local community and maximising income generation for the Council;
- Provide vision, leadership and direction in developing and delivering the corporate strategic change programme.
- Develop and embed a culture of performance management and outcome delivery to ensure the Council can deliver more with less.
- Collaborate with colleagues and partners to facilitate the development and delivery of seamless outcomes that meet defined needs.
- Ensure services have adequate arrangements in place to assess and address risk management, business continuity and other emergencies (if such incidents were to arise).
- In consultation with members and colleagues, develop and ensure the realisation of commissioning and other strategies to scope and specify services that are required to deliver agreed outcomes.

- Ensure there are effective two-way communication channels between customers, providers, partners and staff and their representatives to ensure the quantity, quality and standards of service outputs are understood and delivered.
- Keep abreast of changes in legislation, policy etc. relevant to the remit of the role and ensure these are evaluated against prevailing services development and delivery strategies, and that any necessary, modifications and/or changes are communicated, made and implemented.
- Promote equality, diversity and respect of customers, clients and all members of staff regardless of gender, age, ethnic origin, disability, sexual orientation, religion or any other protected characteristics.
- Actively promote the development of a culture of self-help/self-support/self-service as an alternative to the Council meeting non statutory and/or regulatory needs.

Equality and Diversity:

The Council has a strong commitment to achieving equality in its service to the community and the employment of people and expects all employees to understand, comply with and promote its policies in their own work.

Health and Safety:

The post holder shall ensure that the duties of the post are undertaken with due regard to the Council's Health and Safety Policy and to their personal responsibilities under the provisions of the Health and Safety at work Act 1974 and all other relevant subordinate legislation.

For a more detailed definition of these responsibilities, refer to the current versions of the Corporate Health & Safety Policy, Group Safety Policy and employee information leaflet entitled "Health & Safety Policy; Guidance on Staff Health & Safety Responsibilities".

Corporate Health and Safety Responsibilities

All employees have personal responsibilities to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and others. This means

1. understanding the hazards in the work they undertake.
2. following safety rules and procedures.
3. using work equipment, personal protective equipment, substances, and safety devices correctly.
4. working in accordance with the training provided and only undertaking tasks where appropriate training has been received.

Employees shall co-operate with the Council by allowing it to comply with its duties towards them. This requires employees to

- take part in safety training and risk assessments and suggest ways of reducing risks and

- take part in emergency evacuation exercises.

Employees shall report all accidents, 'near miss' incidents and work-related ill health conditions to their manager/supervisor/team leader.

Employees shall read the Corporate Health & Safety – Organisation Part B Policy to ascertain and understand their responsibilities as an employee, line manager, Assistant Director or Director of the Council.

Information Security:

In order to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of Council information, including information provided by customers, partner organisations, and other third parties, where applicable, employees will comply with the Council's Information Security Policy.

Other duties & responsibilities:

This Job Role Profile is not to be regarded as exclusive or exhaustive. There will be other duties and requirements associated with your post and in addition, as a term of your employment, you may be required to undertake various other duties as may be reasonably required of you. This includes making yourself available to participate in a range of corporate initiatives as determined by your Line Manager. These could include activities such as participation in the Civil Emergencies Planning Rota, supporting the Scrutiny function, actively leading/participating in a range of cross-functioning review and working groups.

Statement of Commitment to Safeguarding of Children and Vulnerable Adults through safer employment practice:

Enfield Council is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable adults. Safe recruitment of staff is central to this commitment and the Council will ensure that its recruitment policies and practices are robust and that selection procedures prevent unsuitable people from gaining access to children, young people and vulnerable adults. All staff employed to work with or on behalf of children and young people in the Council must be competent.

All staff working with Children & Vulnerable Adults should be aware of and share the commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults when applying for posts at Enfield Council.
